

Title: Register into Account

Actor(s): User, Database, API

Purpose: To register user into the system so they can access the application.

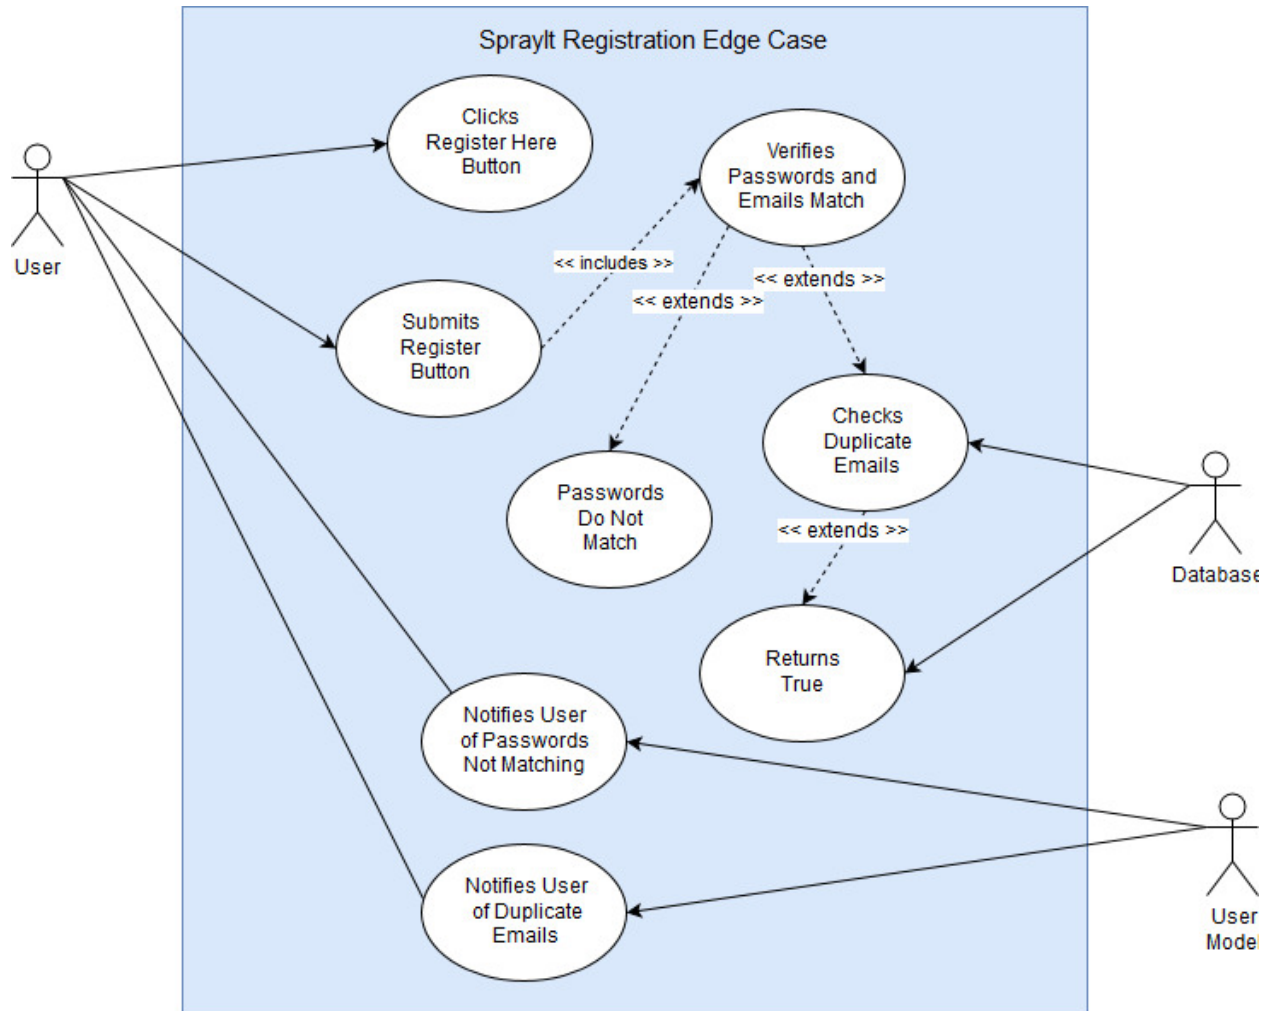

Normal Scenario

Pre-condition(s): User is on login screen but doesn't have an account. User clicks the Register Here link.

Procedure: User clicks Register Here button.
User enters first name, last name, email, confirm email, password, and confirm password.
User clicks Register button
Application confirms emails and passwords match.
Application confirms no other instance in database of email address.

Post-condition(s):

- User is registered.
- User receives registration success message.
- User receives congratulations message.
- User is sent to Login Page.

Scenario 1

Pre-condition(s):

- User is on login screen and thinks they don't have an account. User clicks the Register Here link.

Procedure:

- User click Register Here button
- User enters first name, last name, email, confirm email, password, and confirm password.
- User clicks Register button.
- Application confirms emails and passwords match.
- Application finds another instance of email in database.

Application notifies User of duplicate emails.

Post-condition(s): User is not registered.
User is sent back to Register Page.

Scenario 2

Pre-condition(s): User is on login screen but doesn't have an account. User clicks the Register Here link.

Procedure: User clicks Register Here button
User enters first name, last name, email, confirm email, password, and confirm password.
User clicks Register button
Application confirms emails.
Application cannot confirm passwords match.
Application notifies User of passwords not matching.

Post-condition(s): User is not registered.
User is sent back to Register Page.